PhD School and Research Seminar:
The notions and concepts of Responsive Natural Resources Governance

Venue: Suomen Metsäkeskus (Siltakatu 20 B, Joensuu)

Organized by Institute for Natural Resources, Environment and Society (LYY), University of Eastern Finland in cooperation with Responsive Natural Resources Governance - research group

Registration required (max 30 participants): https://elomake.uef.fi/lomakkeet/16946/lomakke.html

Monday 12th of June, 2017: AT 10:00-17:00 (+ SOCIAL EVENT STARTING AT 17:00)

10:00 Opening and short introductions: Irmeli Mustalahti, University of Eastern Finland

First part of the seminar (10:30-12): The deliberative natural resources governance

Presentation by PhD Student Maija Hyle commented by Leena Leskinen, The Finnish Forest Centre and Alice Ndidde, Makerere University, Uganda

LUNCH BREAK

Second part of the seminar (13:00-15:00): Communities and civil society participation in natural resources governance.

Presentation by PhD Student Violeta Gutierrez Zamora and PhD Student German Quimbayo commented by Tiina Kontinen, University of Jyväskylä and Juha Kotilainen, University of Eastern Finland

COFFEE BREAK

Third part of the seminar (15:30-17:00): Collaborative natural resources management and conflict resolution

Presentation by PhD Student Denis Dobrynin and commented by Timo Hokkanen, North Karelia Biosphere Reserve and Diego García Osorio, National University of Mexico

17:00 Closing: Irmeli Mustalahti, University of Eastern Finland

All seminar participants are welcome to have a dinner and sauna in the same building. Please, take your own towel and sauna drinks with you. Welcome!